write offs

What is a tax write off? A tax write off is an eligible expense that you incurred that can be used to deduct money from your taxable income. This results in your taxable income decreasing therefore decreasing the amount of tax money you will owe.

Obviously, there are many rules when it comes to tax write offs. This is just supposed to get your head churning about what business expenses that you have made that could qualify as a tax write off. Please consult a tax professional, bookkeeper, or accountant before writing off expenses.
